

“THE

OTHER”

“The (Year of) Jubilee brought us to realize how many and diverse are the individuals and social groups treated with indifference and subjected to injustice and violence. They, too, are part of our ‘family;’ they, too are our brothers and sisters. The politics of nonviolence have to begin in the home and then spread to the entire human family.”

Who do I (we) label as the other?

Contemplate one of these pictures. How is Christ in the margins being revealed

As we reflect on this Sunday’s Gospel (John 9:1-41):

- Ask Jesus to open our eyes and hearts to those we can so easily label “other” in our hearts, homes, country.
- Read an article, watch a TV show, a movie, to learn about someone “different”.

“Love them all because they are God’s children and you have no idea what He wishes to make of them.”
