

Living Laudato Si Goals Each Day

Sunday August 16		The most recent report from the UN's Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (see link) such that a commentator noted, "anything each can do is helpful, no matter how small"
Monday August 17		Secretary of the Treasury Janet Yellen has called for the permanent extension of the child welfare tax credit
Tuesday August 18		For Reflection and Action: How far has my last purchase travelled (what is $ cost, what is environmental cost)?
Wednesday August 19		For Reflection and Action: How many items do I have that actually serve the same purpose? Check on kitchen/house wares.
Thursday August 20		The sixth great extinction is premised on the loss of between 24 (lowest) to 150 (higher end) species each day! How can I help reverse the losses?
Friday August 21		Dan Horan, OFM in NCR describes the Climate Crisis as a Spiritual Crisis (see link).
Saturday August 22		Contact your Senators and Representative in Congress re: support calls for renewable energy and issues concerning water at www.senate.gov and www.house.gov (if you do not know who it is, use your 9 digit zip code to find your district/member).