

Fourth Week of Season of Creation

In this Season of Creation we are asked to contemplate the image of the burning bush. Moses realized that he stood on holy ground and he knew that God was asking something special of him and would be with him, giving him strength and wisdom to accomplish what was being asked.

We have spent time reflecting on the vastness of creation, giving thanks “In the Name of All that Is”, and lamenting in recognition of the devastation and destruction that is so present in our times.

With Moses, we continue to stand on holy ground realizing that the voice we hear in each corner of our earth is the voice of God.

Let us listen now to what this voice is telling us to do.

The Jesuit Examen is a wonderful process to help us reflect on our experience of God’s presence in our lives and on our response to what God is asking of us.

As you follow the link below to this ecological examen video on YouTube, remember that you can pause the reflection to move at your own pace or for sharing if you do this as a group....

Season of Creation Prayer

Give us hearts to listen for the good news of your promise to renew the face of the Earth.

Enlighten us with the grace to follow the Way of Christ as we learn to walk lightly upon this holy ground.

Fill us with the hope to quench the fires of injustice with the light of your healing love that sustains our common home.
