

Where are there “burning bush” signs of hope for our future?

As we draw near the end of this Season of Creation, it might be helpful to recognize the signs of hope that are there for us if we take the time to look. There are “burning bushes” to be seen globally and locally. Included here are some of those and some words to encourage us to be people of hope.

Significant strides have been made in cutting world poverty in the last two decades. (See report from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation at <https://www.gatesfoundation.org/goalkeepers/report/2022-report/>)

Let them know with absolute certainty that they will not be abandoned in their needs. God will provide for them wonderfully well. Angela (6th Counsel)

And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. (Romans 5:5)

Nearly half of the largest companies in the US now recognize that it is everyone’s responsibility to tackle climate change and preserve our planet for future generations. What is more, as some of the world’s largest energy users, businesses have a unique opportunity to lead. <https://www.worldwildlife.org/>

Have hope and firm faith in God, for God will help you with everything. (Angela, Prologue)

But the eyes of God are on those who hope in God’s unfailing love. (Ps 33:18)

Global Fishing Watch (<https://globalfishingwatch.org>.) use cutting-edge technology to turn big data into actionable information. Its purpose is to create and publicly share knowledge about human activity at sea to enable fair and sustainable use of our ocean.

If you strive to live like this, without doubt, God will be with you. (Angela, Last Counsel)

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. (Jerimiah 29:11)

Where do you see signs of hope in your community? in your local area? in your own choices?

How can you be a sign of hope for others, simple steps, how might you share those steps, hopes?
