

Living Laudato Si Goals Each Day

Sunday August 1		“No one will protect what they don’t care about, and no one will care about what they never experience.” David Attenborough
Monday August 2		Pope Francis asks us “what kind of a world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up.” Watch: “Action Contra La Faim”
Tuesday August 3		Sometimes the “little things” we do can become big things that can change so much... Watch what creativity can do
Wednesday August 4		“The invitation to live life with more slowness, simplicity and attentiveness is a rich gift to a world driven by speed, consumerism, and distraction.” Earth Our Original Monastery
Thursday August 5		Immersed in our environment today, we have much to learn... Watch video: “Rise Up Again” And when you rise, bring someone with you.
Friday August 6		“Let every step you take on this earth be a prayer.” Black Elk Practice that today...
Saturday August 7		Please sign this letter to President Biden and Congress encouraging bipartisan action to reduce gashouse emissions and to prioritize the needs of the most vulnerable.